Fridtjof Nansen Lodge #6-009 Minutes from our Lodge Meeting of 9-13-2014:

After not meeting for a couple of months it was nice to assemble again and catch up with everyone. In lieu of a regular meeting we enjoyed another chip carving event. Luella Grangaard came in from Palm Springs to conduct the class. We had a good turnout of participants and spectators. We broke for a potluck luncheon midway through the class. As always, our members brought delicious dishes to share and enjoy. Troann announced upcoming events at other lodges that we may be interested in attending.

Romina Solberg shared about her trip to Camp Trollfell at Camp Norge.

Pat Kelly talked about the financial benefits of the Sons of Norway.

Luella Grangaard gave a greeting from the District Board.

Our next meeting will be Saturday October 11th beginning at 12:30 with lunch.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara Shepard – Secretary

October is Foundation Month for Sons of Norway! It's a great time to think about all the worthwhile philanthropic opportunities our Foundation offers and how you might want to support them.

For example, did you know that the Sons of Norway Foundation offers multiple scholarship opportunities that are awarded every year to students throughout the organization? Also, did you know that the Foundation annually offers four different grants to fund local programs that benefit communities throughout the U.S., Canada and Norway? Because of the great work that the Foundation does and the significant need of members, students and lodges, Sons of Norway is asking all members to consider supporting the Foundation by making a contribution this month. Your support will ensure that the Sons of Norway Foundation can continue to make a significant positive impact on the communities it serves, while helping lodges and individuals achieve their dreams.

If you'd like to make a contribution to the Sons of Norway Foundation, you may visit us on the web at www.sonsofnorway.com/foundation or call (800) 945-8851.

A Bit of Humor

Ole said to Lena, "Lena, you have been with me through a tornado, through my heart attack, through crop disasters, through terrible blizzards, through my surgeries. Lena, I think you are bad luck to me.

Ole was dying upstairs in his house. Through squinting eyes Ole said, "Lena, are you here?" "Ya, Ole I am here." "Ole Junior, are you here?" "Ya, Dad I am here" Signe, darling daughter, are you here?" "Ya, Pa, I am here." "Brother Lars, are you here?" "Ya, Ole, I am here." "Then why is the light still on downstairs?"

Ole was very ill, he sneaked downstairs for a brownie. Lena said, "Ole, those are for the funeral."

Ole went to the doctor complaining of severe pain. "Where does it hurt?" Ole poked his head and said, "It hurts HERE." Then he poked his ribs and said, "It hurts HERE." Then, poking his upper leg, he again said, "It hurts HERE." Finally, he put his finger in his ear, saying, "And it hurts HERE." The doctor started to laugh. He said, "For good-ness sake, Ole, you got a broken FINGER."

Pumpkin and Beef Casserole

Adapted from www.apéritif.no

- 2 lbs trimmed tender beef, diced 4 shallots, roughly chopped
- 2 large garlic cloves, minced 3 tbsp olive oil
- 2 plum tomatoes, chopped 1 green bell pepper, cubed
- 1 tbsp salt  $\frac{1}{2}$  tsp ground pepper
- 1 tsp tabasco 1 tsp sugar
- 12 dried apricots, cubed 3 large potatoes, peeled and cubed
- 2 cups white wine 3 cups beef stock, water or broth
- 3 large sweet potatoes, peeled and cubed
- 1 medium sized pumpkin (about  $7\frac{3}{4}$  lbs)  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup melted butter
- $\frac{1}{2}$  cup fino sherry 2 fresh cobs of corn
- fresh coriander

Heat oil in a large frying pan and brown beef. Add onion and garlic and saute until soft. Add remaining ingredients and bring to boil. Cover and simmer for 45 minutes.

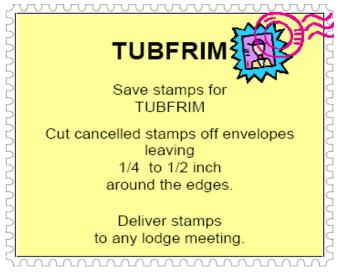

Bring lightly salted water to a boil. Add corn and boil for 4 minutes. Remove from water and allow to cool. Cut kernels from the cob and set aside.

Remove the top of the pumpkin, creating an 8" or 9" opening. Remove strands and seeds. Brush the inside of the pumpkin with melted butter. Place pumpkin in a baking dish. Add sherry and corn to the heated meat mixture and pour into the pumpkin. Replace the pumpkin top and place in the oven on the lowest rack at 350° F. Bake for 1 hour. Serve directly from the pumpkin and include the tender flesh of the pumpkin.

Bring your clipped stamps to our next Lodge meeting. Cleone is collecting them for us.

Alt for Norge (Everything for Norway) is a Norwegian reality series produced by Monster Entertainment for TVNorge. In the series, twelve Norwegian-Americans compete to see who is the "most Norwegian" with help from different Norwegian themed challenges. The series was named the best competitive reality show by Gullruten (Norwegian TV awards) in 2011, the best reality show by Gullruten in 2012, and was also nominated for best new program series in 2011 and awarded best clip/editing in 2012.

For five years in a row TVNorge has gone on a trip with twelve charming and outspoken Norwegain-Americans in search of their Norwegian family. This year the show has included, among others, an American football athlete, a pastor, a model and a marine biologist who writes novels about a sexy troll. To meet in Norway has brought out heavy emotions for all of the participants.

"Alt for Norge is founded on a real love for Norway, and participants have a genuine motivation to find out more about their Norwegian roots. This makes the program more genuine and warm-hearted than many others. Additionally the Americans are not arrogant and will put themselves out there and those that do are easy to like," says the show's host, Henriette Bruusgaard.

The show is filmed throughout Norway, and participants are competing to find out who is the most "Norwegian". They must go through a series of Norwegian challenges, and in the process bust myths about both Norwegians and Americans. The one who stands until the end wins a meeting with their Norwegian relatives.

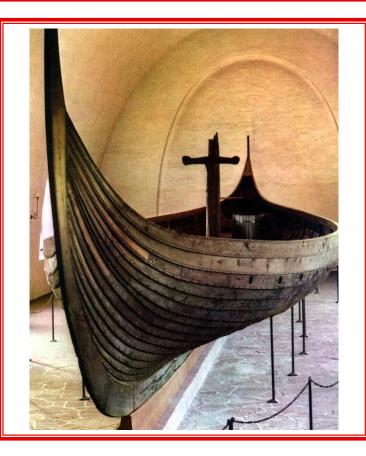

The series is rated as one of TVNorge's largest achievements, and the concept has been sold to several countries. The new season was filmed from April to June and will be aired in the fall 2014. October • oktober Leif Erikson Day – Oct 9

Why October 9? - The official date of Leif Erikson Day doesn't directly correlate to Erik-son's arrival in North America. Instead—in a nod to the same explorative spirit that fueled Erikson's journey—the date marks the arrival of the very first immigrant ship from Norway, the Restauration, to New York in 1895. Exactly 100 years later, President Coolidge declared Erikson the first European to discover America during a commemorative address in Minnesota. In the years that followed several U.S. states adopted the date as a state holiday and in September of 1964 Congress approved a public resolution authorizing President Johnson to declare October 9 as Leif Erikson Day nationwide.

Viking Games

During the Viking Age, daily life involved a lot of heavy labor, particularly in agriculture. But the Vikings' lives were not without fun. In a recent study, Leszek Gardeła, an archaeologist at the University of Rzeszów, matches descriptions from saga literature with excavated artifacts to reveal how Vikings entertained themselves during leisure time. They loved board games, gambling, sports challenges, dancing, music and crafts. Leisure activities were often associated with festivals, weddings, religious events, market days and other social gatherings, though not exclusively. While being an amusing way to pass the time, many Viking sports served a secondary purpose of preparing men physically for battle, usually involving displays of strength, agility, masculinity and violence. An ideal warrior needed to be adept of body and mind, and the games were part of their preparation.

Weightlifting challenges used boulders as weights to determine the brawniest competitor. Tug-ofwar, or toga honk, was also popular. Wrestling (glíma) was widespread, and the object was to throw one's opponent off his feet onto his back using the strength of one's arms. The matches were violent and sometimes ended in broken limbs or worse. Warriors would also participate in weaponry games to hone their battle skills. Competitions in archery, sword fighting and spear- and stone-throwing offered prizes. Various other physical games were played including animal skinthrowing games (hornaskinnleikr or skinnleikr), full-contact ball games (knatteleik), turf games (torfleikr), and scraper games (sköfuleikr), similar to hockey. Though these offered a slightly less rugged type of sport, tripping and shoving were fair play and even these "more civilized" games sometimes turned violent and proved fatal.

Board games were played to develop intellect, strategy and problem-solving abilities, and being adept at these games was considered noble. Hnefatafl was a favorite war board game for two players, an ancestor of chess by about four centuries, having been well-known by 400 A.D. The two players do not start with an equal number of pieces, however. One side is surrounded by the other's army, and outnumbered, and the object is to protect one's king and strategize your way to victory, or at least safety, by thinking like your opponent.

More peaceful hobbies were also pursued, such as woodcarving, whittling, and embroidery. Also, music and storytelling were other favored pastimes and epic historical tales survived by word of mouth. Being an engaging storyteller was a prized skill, and some people did it professionally.

While Vikings lived hard lives with little time for leisure activities, they were certainly adept at amusing themselves when the opportunity arose.
